What Wilson Said.

"I think that the public ought to know the extraordinary exertion being made by the lobby in Washington to sain recognition for certain altera tions of the tariff bill. Washington has seldom seen so numerous, so indistrious or so insidious a lobby. There is every evidence that money without limit is being spent to sustain this lobby and to create the appear ance of a pressure of public opinion antgonistic to some of the chie. items of the tariff bill. It is of serious inerest to the country that the people at large should have no lobby and be loiceless in these matters, while great bodies of astute men seek to create an artificial opinion and to overcome the interests of the public for their private profit. The government in all ha branches ought to be relieved from this intolerable burden. I know that in this I am speaking for the memhers of the two houses who would reloice as much as I would to be releved of this unbearable situation."

The president's statement was inarpreted here not only as a blow to the lobbyists, but as a move indirectly drive the threatening Democratic implication of corrupt influences Mich might be read into it. Mr. Wilbimself, however, made it plain his conversation that he made no large of that character.

Latest Move of Gompers and Mitchell In the Contempt Case.

Washington, May 27.- The case of Samuel Gompers, John Mitchell and Frank Morrison, officers of the American Federation of Labor, adjudged in contempt of court of the District of Columbia, was formally submitted to the supreme court on appeal. It is the second time these contempt cases, growing out of the Bucks Stove and Range company injunction, have appeared in the supreme court. It is understood that if Gompers, Mitchell and Morrison lose their appeals before the supreme court they will appeal to President Wilson for a pardon to prevent them from having to serve their sentences.

Officials of the department of justice regard the decision of tremendous importance, putting an end to existing widespread extensions of patent monopolies and sharply drawing a line of demarcation between the ent laws.

Under the cloak of the legal monopoly granted by the patent laws many industries, it is contended, control the price of patented articles to the ultimate consumer. The department of justice has contended that once a patentee sells his patented article he loses all control of it and is powerless, especially in view of the Sherman antitrust law, to establish resale prices.

Washington, May 27 .- The terms of the decree dissolving the so-called soft coal trust were discussed at a conference here between Attorney General McReynolds and Frank Trumbull, chairman of the board of the Hocking Valley railroad, and Lawrence Max well, counsel for the road. The government has interpreted the decision of the United States court at Cincinnati as ordering the Hocking Valley to relinquish control of the Sunday Creek Coal company, mining an enormous amount of soft coal, and also as ordering the Chesapeake & Ohio or the New York Central to surrender control of the Kanawha & Michigan, the Toledo & Ohio Central, and the Hocking Valley railroads.

Special to Herald

Washington, D. C., May 27th. -In a scathing speech before the United States Senate today Senator Atlee Pomerene of Ohio read Governor Cox's arraignment of Senators Goff and Gollinger on account of their attack on the Governor for his refusal to send troops to Cincinnati during the riots growing out of the strike of the street railway employees.

Senator Pomerene called attention to the fact that peace came almost immediately after Governor Cox refused to order the soldiers to Cincinnati.

He also called attention to the disgraceful conditions which have obtained in Senator Goff's state, West Virginia, for twenty years, notwithstanding the fact that troops have been called out frequently to end labor troubles.

President Takes The Offensive

President Wilson has taken the warpath because of the attempts now being made in the Senate to check the tariff legislation.

Close observers of the progress of events in the capital But if he loves his fellowmen, are not at all surprised by this turn, indeed they had expected just that very thing to happen if the opposition to the Underwood tariff bill became pronounced and stubborn in the Senate.

If the opposition continues and the breach widens to the extent that the old filibustering tactics are resorted to by the senators who are opposing the measure, the quiet, dignified chief executive who has already introduced decided innovations may be expected to point a simple way out of the labyrinth which has proved the undoing of much legislation in the past.

That the heretofore effective game of delay by the Senate will be met by the President and thwarted, the great majority of the people believe.

Already the President is making disclosures of a general nature regarding the existence of a powerful lobby with an unlimited supply of money at its command, and these general charges will, judging from the President's plans in past campaigns, be followed by specific and detailed charges against which nothing save absolutely clean opposition can stand.

No charge of corruption by the lobby is made, except in the promulgation of misleading reports and statements for the purpose of creating public sentiment.

The fight for the tariff bill in the Senate always promising of decidedly interesting developments, seems now nearer to a real lively fight under the new political rules than ever before.

It will be interesting to watch the battle between President Wilson and the Senate as it goes forward toward the inevitable end, day by day, especially if it has attained in reality that acute state which news reports from the capital now

The American people will see, in all probability, something in east; fair in west portion; Wednesdecidedly out of the ordinary in the game of statesmanship at the national capital in the next few weeks.

People don't have to be told that it costs more to live nowadays than it did 10 years ago—the prices speak for themselves. But a good many don't know that Selz shoes are sold at a lower margin of profit than any others; their volume of sales and their scientific methods of manufacture are the reasons why this can be done. When you buy Selz footwear you know that you are getting an even exchange—or more—for your money.

Men like Selz shoes; they come in all styles and leathers. An especial favorite with them is the Waukenphast model, the shoe with that distinctive style and comfortable fit.

There is every evidence that money without limit is being spent to sustain this lobby and to create the appear ance of a pressure of public opinion antgonistic to some of the chie? items of the tariff bill. It is of serious interest to the country that the people at large should have no lobby and be voiceless in these matters, while great bodies of astute men seek to create an artificial opinion and to overcome the interests of the public for their private profit. The government in all its branches ought to be relieved from this intolerable burden. I know that in this I am speaking for the memhers of the two houses who would reloice as much as I would to be relieved of this unbearable situation." The president's statement was interpreted here not only as a blow to the lobbyists, but as a move indirectly to drive the threatening Democratic senators into line. Democrats in congress who objected to the president's statement did so chiefly on the ground of implication of corrupt influences which might be read into it. Mr. Wilbimself, however, made it plain

A SCATHING REBUKE OF WEST VIRGINIA SENATORS ADMINISTERED BY POMERENE TODAY

Special to Herald

Washington, D. C., May 27th. In a scathing speech before the United States Senate today Senator Atlee Pomerene of Ohio read Governor Cox's arraignment of Senators Goff and Gollinger on account of their attack on the Governor for his refusal to send troops to Cincinnati during the riots growing out of the strike of the street railway employees.

Senator Pomerene called attention to the fact that peace came almost immediately after Governor Cox refused to order the soldiers to Cincinnati.

He also called attention to the disgraceful conditions which have obtained in Senator Goff's state, West Virginia, for twenty years, notwithstanding the fact that troops have been called out frequently to end labor troubles.

President Takes The Offensive

President Wilson has taken the warpath because of the attempts now being made in the Senate to check the tariff legislation.

Close observers of the progress of events in the capital But if he loves his fellowmen, are not at all surprised by this turn, indeed they had expected just that very thing to happen if the opposition to the Underwood tariff bill became pronounced and stubborn in the Senate.

If the opposition continues and the breach widens to the extent that the old filibustering tactics are resorted to by the senators who are opposing the measure, the quiet, dignified chief executive who has already introduced decided innovations may be expected to point a simple way out of the labyrinth which has proved the undoing of much legislation in the past.

That the heretofore effective game of delay by the Senate will be met by the President and thwarted, the great majority of the people believe.

Already the President is making disclosures of a general nature regarding the existence of a powerful lobby with an unlimited supply of money at its command, and these general charges will, judging from the President's plans in past campaigns, be followed by specific and detailed charges against which nothing save absolutely clean opposition can stand.

promulgation of misleading reports and statements for the pur pose of creating public sentiment.

The fight for the tariff bill in the Senate always promising of decidedly interesting developments, seems now nearer to a real lively fight under the new political rules than ever before.

It will be interesting to watch the battle between President Wilson and the Senate as it goes forward toward the inevitable end, day by day, especially if it has attained in reality that acute state which news reports from the capital now indicate.

The American people will see, in all probability, something decidedly out of the ordinary in the game of statesmanship at the national capital in the next few weeks.

People don't have to be told that it costs more to live nowadays than it did 10 years ago—the prices speak for themselves. But a good many don't know that Selz shoes are sold at a lower margin of profit than any others; their volume of sales and their scientific methods of manufacture are the reasons why this can be done. When you buy Selz footwear you know that you are getting an even exchange—or more—for your money.

Men like Selz shoes; they come in all styles and leathers. An especial favorite with them is the Waukenphast model, the shoe with that distinctive style and comfortable fit.

Cat Goes After Birds and Catches Tartars Instead.

Los Angeles.-Treed by a great flock of angry sparrows a badly frightened cat was rescued here by officers of the Humane society. Three days before the cat had climbed the tree, presumably in the hope of catching a sparrow. The sparrows caught the cat.

Every time tabby tried to leave the birds fought it back with their sharp beaks, and the rescuers had to beat off the spiteful sparrows before they could reach the cat.
